HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK

The public safety teams have a legal duty to ensure that businesses comply with the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and related legislation. They aim to ensure that premises are safe for employees and visitors and that accidents are prevented wherever possible.

We investigate certain accidents and incidents at work, complaints about health and safety conditions at work, provide advice to employers and employees on health and safety and carry out inspections of businesses.

FOOD SAFETY AND HYGIENE

The Food Safety Act 1990 and the regulations made under it make it an offence for anyone to sell or process food for sale which is harmful to health. The act also places an obligation on businesses to ensure that their activities are carried out in a hygienic way.

The food safety teams enforce food legislation and offer advice and guidance on food safety to local businesses.

PROCUREMENT

Are you looking for a business opportunity?

The councils spend a considerable amount on procuring goods, services and works which offer business opportunities to a wide range of commercial suppliers of all sizes and the voluntary sector. There is a great deal of competition for this business but, if you can help us to achieve a cost effective solution and value for money, why not get in touch.
