Courageous Conversation

Designed in 3 stages – Pre-course reflection, a face-to-face workshop and follow-up activities and resources. This is a 1-day training course to help you build your confidence and prepare for the potentially difficult and sensitive conversations you (might) face within your work context. Delegates work scenarios and challenges will be used to illustrate the course's practical application and the input from shared expertise of the multi-agency group. It's an opportunity not to be missed. Click HERE to book your place.
